

26 January 1951

THE CRANDALL FOR MR. JACKSON

Your talk for the American Legion will be held in Suite 705 of the Washington Hotel at 4:30 PM, Friday, 26 January. They would like you to discuss, for approximately 30 minutes, "The general plan and organization of CIA and what we of the American Legion can do to assist in providing the tools needed for an adequate intelligence agency." This discussion will be followed by a short question and answer period.

Speakers throughout the afternoon and evening are as follows:

2:30 - General Fellers, Psychological Warfare.

3:30 - J. D. Wadsworth, Assistant Director of Civilian Defense.

4:30 - William E. Jackson - CIA

6:00 - Dinner

8:00 - Colonel Bover, Assistant Director of the Reserve Officers Association.

9:00 - General Walsh, President of the National Guard Association.

Mr. Burns, American Legion Headquarters, is to let me know in the morning the approximate number of people who will be present when you speak.

STAT

P.S. Mr. Burns' office just called and stated there would be approximately 30 people attending the meeting.

STAT

MORI/CDE